What is Kernel Recipes?

Hupstream will organize the 8th edition of Kernel Recipes on September 2019 in Paris.

We have started working on Kernel Recipes 8 years ago. The main goal was to create a yearly meeting in France and give the opportunity to meet the guys involved in kernel.org. But we wanted to organize it so that it can be less formal and more “human” than most of the existing meeting in Europe or in the US. That’s why the max number of expected people is about 150. There is no main line for the talks but rather quite an open one: current burning topics, future of Linux kernel development, project organization, security, relations with other free software projects, relations with hardware manufacturers.

All talks are organized in a single room so that people do not have to choose what talks they should attend. Priority is given to pedagogy and exchanges between attendees and speakers. A lunch is planned for each day so that people can discuss some more and we use to have social events at the end of each days.

Feedbacks

“Nothing to say, the organization was perfect, everything went in the ease and fluidity and we did not even finish late. I learned things (on the flash) and found the tools I plan to use soon (HDT and Ladybug). It has not had the opportunity to thank the participants for being very attentive, interactive and respectful to stakeholders. We did not see a single phone or people coding during presentations. It was so different from what we eventually get used to seeing these days. Thank you to you all!”

Willy Tarreau, HaProxyTech

“This conference has all of the stable kernel maintainers, 1/2 the kernel security team and many subsystem maintainers all in 1 room #kr2017.”

Greg KH, Linux Foundation, n°2 kernel.org

“Oh definitely, that goes without saying. I’ve enjoyed everything about KR the two times I’ve gone. It’s refreshingly different, in a good way.”

Jens Axboe, Facebook

“LWN.net covering of Kernel Recipes:
“That’s quite a bit of stuff from a single event!”

Jonathan Corbet, Lwn.net

“I thought KR was one of the best events I went to last year, and I would be happy to return.”

Why sponsoring

Kernel Recipes is unique in the way it’s organized. We want to keep it affordable and this is possible because we have sponsors. Everybody then can attend it whoever he is: students, trainee, or professionnals. Still our attendees are high level kernel hackers in universities, startups, banks, industries, security...

The conference takes place in a single room so the talks have the full audience and a very attentive one (based also on speakers impressions).

Sponsoring this event is also a way to contribute to the Linux kernel project allowing people to meet and learn from great developers but also allowing kernel developers to meet themselves there.
